Trelawny (The Song of the Western Men)
Lyrics by Robert Stephen Hawker (1804–1875)

A good sword and a trusty hand, a merry heart and true!
King James's men shall understand what Cornish lads can do.
And have they fix'd the where and when?
And shall Trelawny die?
Here's twenty thousand Cornish men will know the reason why!

Chorus:

*And shall Trelawny live? Or shall Trelawny die?
Here's twenty thousand Cornish men Will know the reason why!*

Out spake their Captain brave and bold: A merry wright was he:
"If London Tower were Michael's hold, we'll set Trelawny free!
We'll cross the Tamar, land to land, The Severn is now stay:
With 'one and all', and hand in hand,
And who shall bid us nay?"

Chorus

"And when we come to London Wall, A pleasant sight to view,
Come forth! come forth ye cowards all, here's men as good as you!
Trelawny he's in keep and hold: Trelawny he may die:
But here's twenty thousand Cornish bold,
Will know the reason why!

Chorus
